You are cordially invited to participate in the Magical Moments Bridal Show on Sunday, January 8, 2012, at the Knights of Columbus in Caro. This wonderful event will be open to the public from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Many local vendors have come together for years to participate in this event. The advertising, timing, format, location, and atmosphere will help bring in your target customers.

If you have a special request on your location, please specify on the registration form. We will do our best to accomodate. Proximity of competing vendors will be taken into consideration. The deadline for registration and payment is December 16, 2011, no exceptions.

All vendors are required to give a door prize valued at a minimum of $50 of goods or services. The enclosed door prize form must be completed legibaly and returned with the registration form, no exceptions.
